DIORAMA ADDICTED, FROM VIGNETTES TO MEGA PROJECTS, STEP BY STEP. JUSTO MIRA

After building Revell's divine 1:72 Panzer III for the last issue, I have become much more aware of smaller scale for armour subjects, so this new title from Mig Jimenez (formerly of Mig Productions) really caught my eye. It's by Spanish modeller Justo Mira and showcases his stunning 1:72 dioramas, some of which are gargantuan affairs depicting entire street scenes and some just small vignettes, but equally effective. Justo's work is inspirational and even if you prefer 1:48 and 1:35, his techniques and imaginative approach are equally applicable. Highly recommended.
